Professor Robert Faurisson died suddenly this evening, just after arriving at his home in Vichy, France, following a triumphant return to his native town of Shepperton, Surrey. He died instantly after suffering a heart attack as he crossed the threshold of his home.

Born to a Scots mother and French father in Shepperton in January 1929, Professor Faurisson would have been 90 in three months time. H&D is proud to have facilitated his final speech on the final weekend of his eventful and heroic life.

Yesterday at a hotel in Shepperton, before a personally invited audience of 70 friends and fellow students of real history, Professor Faurisson gave a masterful summary of his decades of research.

Time and again, beginning in the 1970s, he put his exceptional academic expertise in analysing documentary texts at the service of historical exactitude.

Travelling to many countries in his researches, Professor Faurisson was the first to establish that the so-called homicidal ‘gas chamber’ displayed to tourists in Auschwitz is a post-war ‘reconstruction’ – in fact a fake by Soviet propagandists – and the first to publish detailed original blueprints for what were later claimed to have been homicidal ‘gas chambers’ but were in fact mortuaries.

For decades Professor Faurisson was relentlessly pursued by French courts, after a special law was introduced to criminalise his work. Even at the hour of his death, several prosecutions were still ongoing in Paris and Vichy courtrooms.

Yesterday’s final Faurisson speech was at a private reception in his honour, arranged by H&D’s assistant editor Peter Rushton with the backing of Lady Michèle Renouf, Richard Edmonds and Max Musson. Guests were welcomed by Lady Renouf, and then heard an opening speech by Vincent Reynouard, the leading figure in a younger generation of Frenchmen inspired by Professor Faurisson to pursue their own researches into ‘forbidden’ history.

Professor Faurisson himself then presented a comprehensive overview of his career including very new and important discoveries – a full video of his speech will be broadcast later this week by Lady Renouf’s Telling Films. His swansong was also captured for posterity by an invited camera team from a Lebanese television station.

Just as the Professor was completing his speech, the hotel management summoned Peter Rushton. In another part of the hotel – while Professor Faurisson concluded his address – the hotel manager demanded that Mr Rushton close down the meeting. Mr Rushton insisted that the event had been booked in good faith as a private reception – with no duplicity – and that it would continue until the scheduled conclusion.

In a disgraceful breach of contract, the management then harassed the audience in the hotel’s private function room, haranguing Professor Faurisson and his friends, turning out the lights, setting off the fire alarm and playing loud disco music in an attempt to drown out Peter Rushton’s speech.

Undeterred, Mr Rushton persisted – speaking in the dark over the background noise of fire bells etc. – and the audience bravely suffered this unusual form of oratory!

The H&D team extend our profound thanks to the 70 guests from around Britain, and from Canada, Italy, France, Belgium, Ireland and the former Yugoslavia, who joined us in Shepperton yesterday and enabled Professor Faurisson to die a happy and contented man.

Our friend Vincent Reynouard uploaded the above video of yesterday’s events, just before news of the Professor’s death. A full report will appear in our January issue (since our November edition is already at the printers). As what is now a posthumous tribute to Professor Faurisson, the expanded text of Peter Rushton’s speech will also be published soon, incorporating the latest revelations from Britain’s official archives concerning wartime fakery of homicidal gassings and other atrocities.

Long live Robert Faurisson and Historical Exactitude!

UPDATE: Former presidential candidate and Front National founder Jean-Marie Le Pen MEP issued the statement below after hearing news of Professor Faurisson’s death. M. Le Pen writes: “I did not know Robert Faurisson personally, but the extensive means employed for decades in efforts to silence him appear to me as symbolic of the decline of freedom of speech and thought in our nation. The so-called historical memory laws used to criminalise political opponents of various persuasions are the sign of an anti-democratic strategy that the powers-that-be use and abuse against patriotic spirit and against peoples who rebel in defence of identity.”

NATURE'S BRED SPECIES' STRIFE TO SURVIVE AND THRIVE IS THE VIVIFYING OLYMPIC GAME OF LIFE

FIGHT TO LOVE LIFE MY LOVES

LIFE'S OLYMPIC GAME AUG2004

When shall Our Folk again
 Freely over ourselves reign
 Instead of suffering the bane
 Of invading aliens intent to us hame
 Some now winning at Olympic games
 Nominally done in Our Folk's name
 Which defaming insult does us shame
 Having only our meekness to blame
 As we allow Folk Traitors to us chain
 To be cowed slaves for parasites' gain
 And care for aliens more than our ain
 Loving them that makes our seed wane
 Which is the leechy alien invaders aim
 That must our forebear's souls inflame
 From feeling they died fighting for us in vain
 On seeing our Folk's blood poured down the drain
 Having been trained to be simple mercenary swain
 Used to invade other lands and their folk enchain
 To be like we slaves meekly jesting over our defame
 Scatterbrained to love etc. our leechers which is insane
 While paupered into a multi mixed race powerless strain
 As mass bred cheap labour lured goofs kept totally inane
 Work and war bled to make the Zionists' world sovereign
 Because we seemingly lack the needed guts and brains
 To unite and fight to live thru life's toughest campaign
 Being to survive and thrive whatever the social terrain
 Against parasites who ruthlessly do their rule maintain
 To their luxury living at their bled producers' cost sustain
 And so their ever repression is the aim we must attain
 So we producers not parasites enjoy victory's fame
 By winning against our foes instead of being slain
 Which is the main aim of Life's toughest Olympic Game
